2011/12

Our Season in Review – Season 2011/12

Moonee Valley faced up to 2011/12 as a "new" season in more ways than one.

There was a changing of the guard in our competitions during the off-season, with the Victorian Turf Cricket Association putting in an "offer" to the Moreland Moonee Valley Cricket Association after a couple of local clubs made approaches to move to the VTCA.

As a result, the MMVCA turf clubs as a group decided to move to VTCA, which included our Thirds and Fifths. The MMVCA then recommenced merger negotiations with the North West Cricket Association on behalf of the matting clubs. The MMVCA then folded, and the North West Metropolitan Cricket Association was born.

Our First Eleven was relegated after one season in North Division, even though we put up a very detailed and reasoned argument to "stay up", and we entered 2011/12 back in North A, where we won the premiership two seasons earlier.

The pressure was on us in terms of our First Eleven. As a result of the merger and the creation of two B Divisions – North and West – the bottom four teams in North A at the end of 2011/12 were to be relegated. That didn't leave much buffer – the top four, plus teams 5 and 6 stayed up. It was imperative that we didn't slip any further.

Several long-standing First Eleven players had transferred to other clubs, and the two international players we had contracted faced delays getting here due to visa delays and other commitments in Pakistan.

On top of these distractions, we entered 2011/12 with a new coach, and the players had to get to know his style and methods.

Lou Raffaele stood down as coach (but not as a player) after four seasons in charge, and after a detailed advertising and interview process that involved more than 15 applicants from local areas and overseas, we selected Vic Hodge as our new coach.

Vic's background was cricket and soccer coaching in the UK, and most recently coaching Premier club Melbourne's Fifth Eleven. The selection of Vic Hodge proved to be an inspired choice, as he brought a new and different regimen to our Club, with a focus on fitness drills, discipline (no more pushups, Vic), one-on-one coaching and detailed analysis of techniques and game plans.

2011/12 - Wisden Cricketers of the Year

Amit Chaudhary

Amit continued on from his stellar season in 2010/11, again winning the Club Champion Award for the First Eleven, and taking out both the batting and bowling awards for the second year in succession. Amit was the rock in the middle order that helped stabilise our batting on many occasions, hitting 259 runs @ 37.0. He knows how to dig in when we need to occupy the crease and soak up some overs. Amit often opened the bowling with his deceptively sharp medium pacers, taking 21 wickets @ 15.1. He has also played a key role in ensuring that our international players feel comfortable coming to Australia and playing at our club.

Ian Denny

Like the Duracell Bunny, he just keeps on keeping on. But Egbert is no-one's bunny. Played most of the season in the Fourths, and stepped up for a couple of games in the Firsts when needed. Clubbed 393 runs @ 56.1, including 2 trademark centuries, and took a more-than-handy 13 wickets @ 17.7 – mainly choosing the right-arm legspin out of his endless repertoire of tricks. Ian's within reach of joining Darren Nagle as a triple centurion of games, as he's just 6 short of the mark. His 10,827 runs is still Bradmanesque in comparison to those following in his wake. And his 617 wickets leaves a gap of almost 200 on the second rung on our ladder. Ian's without doubt Moonee Valley's greatest player, and his 2011/12 season shows age has not wearied him – in the least!

Trent Milne

Trent finally made the switch to Moonee Valley after Mark Gauci had been in his ear for years. He quickly settled in to the top order in our Firsts. Trent played a couple of Sunday games when commitments meant he was unable to play on some Saturdays, and he promptly reeled off back-to-back centuries. His season reaped 478 runs @ 47.8, batting at No. 3. Just wait until he starts to convert the 20s and 30s he makes in the Ones into big scores. Trent has settled in off the field as well, and played a valuable role in talent-spotting some of our up-and-coming players in the lower grades and reporting back to the selectors. Took on the gloves in the Firsts all season, for 10 catches and a stumping.

Darren Nagle

When a player gets to 300 games, you might think they're in the dotage of their career. Not so the great Spud. He was deserved man of the match for his batting and bowling in his 300th game, taking 4/15 and making 40no against Greenvale. Darren's still blunting the new ball coming in at the top of the order, batting in his beloved traditional cap. Playing in the Fourths along with one dominant game in the Fiftths, Darren compiled 420 runs @ 60 and took 16 wickets @ 11.8. Had the one hit out on turf, when he made 85 to show he's still got the talent. Spud's unstoppable. What will he be achieving when he gets to 400 games?

Pat Taylor

Pat joined Moonee Valley in 2008/09 after being frustrated by a lack of opportunity at his previous club. We had realised his potential after seeing him in one of those games. Pat's since taken 59 wickets at Moonee Valley, including 25 wickets @ 10.1 this season. He can send down his right-arm spinners all day, landing them on a sixpence. Pat did just that in the Sixths in Round 2, taking 5/57 from 26 successive overs. His efforts won him the North West Metropolitan Cricket Association's bowling award for the Barron Shield. Pat's excellent season was rewarded with selection on turf in the Fiftths' semi-final match. He may not have got much opportunity at his previous club, but he's earned respect at Moonee Valley.

Our player numbers tapered off slightly from the previous season, and we ended up fielding 14 teams for 2011/12 – eight senior teams, an Under 16s, two Under 14s, an Under 12s and two Under 10s. Club stalwart John Talone also ran a successful Milo In2Cricket program for the youngsters.

We also had to reluctantly pull out our women's team after forfeiting the first three rounds. The formation of a women's team at Craigeburn, which saw five of our players transfer, had a major impact on our viability.

We remain committed to getting a Moonee Valley women's team back on the park for the 2012/13 season.

Seven of our eight senior teams were in the running for finals come the last round of the season, with only the Seconds definitely out of contention.

The Sixths also appeared to be destined for finals, but in a curious administrative decision, the NWMCA rejigged the points on the ladder half way through the last round, and our team went from being a comfortable 12 points clear of the fifth-placed team to being equal on points. When rain destined that last round to a draw, we were out.

We were also able to cope with the VTCA fixturing both our Thirds and Fifths in the same Sunday two-day grade. Both derbies were keenly contested, and we had a magnificent match in the second of them, with the Thirds narrowly winning first innings points and the Fifths then overturning it with a sporting declaration and an outright win.

Darren Nagle

When a player gets to 300 games, you might think they’re entitled to bat down the order. Not so the great Spud, still proudly facing up to the new ball. He was deserved man of the match for his batting and bowling in his 300th game. Playing in the Fourths plus one dominant game in the Fifths, Darren compiled 420 runs @ 60 and took 16 wickets @ 11.8. He’s unstoppable.

Steven Ball

The Fourths were blessed with multiple opening bats, so Steven moved around the order – five innings as an opener, and others ranging from No. 3 to No. 8. Made 289 runs @ 57.8, including a dig of 105no at No. 3. When the two opening bats in your Team of the Year average over 55, you’ve got a solid base to build on.

Trent Milne

Trent had been on Moonee Valley’s radar for a number of seasons, and finally made the move. Our Club’s top scorer this year with 478 runs @ 47.8, and also an accomplished keeper. Made centuries in the Fifths and Eighths when unavailable for a couple of Saturdays. We’re confident he’ll convert his starts in the First Eleven into big scores in future seasons.

Ihtisham Uddin

Visa delays meant Ihtsi only played 6 games this season, but he’s a quality top order bat. Hit 140 runs @ 23.3 in the Firsts, including an excellent 70. His offspin at times was unplayable, returning 12 wickets @ 5.75. Just wait until he’s here for a full season!

Lou Raffaele

Lou missed five games to illness, but had a big impact when he was able to take to the field. Co-captain of the Thirds and also played in the Twos. Hit 256 runs @ 51.2, meaning the top half in our Team of the Year bats deep – when you add in Egbert at No. 6. Can also send down a few overs.

Ian Denny

The master! Played most of the season in the Fourths, and stepped up for a couple of games in the Firsts when needed. A masterful 393 runs @ 56.1, including 2 centuries, and a more-than-handy 13 wickets @ 17.7 – mainly choosing the right-arm legspin out of his endless repertoire of tricks. When you’ve got Egbert at No. 6, no opponents can rest easy.

Our Team of the Year is selected from across all grades, in batting order. It’s highly subjective as it’s near-impossible to make a decision based on pure ability when assessing relative performances against the standard of the grade our players are in. So we’ve used the criteria of team balance, player performances and dominance relative to their grade, consistency and performance over the year and selected a team based on merit and 2011/12 results. Many players were considered and can feel unlucky to miss out – but our team would give anyone a run for their money!

Amit Chaudhary

Amit was again the rock on which we built our First Eleven season, with 259 runs @ 37.0 and 21 wickets @ 15.1. For the second year in succession Amit has won the Club Champion Award for the First Eleven, and for the second time running has won both the batting and bowling awards. He’s stepped up as a leader at our Club, and is a worthy captain of our Wisden Team of the Year.

Peter O’Kane

Pok is a real all-rounder in this team, capable of opening the bowling and then scoring heavily in the middle order. His season’s stats are 279 runs @ 31.0 and 15 wickets @ 18.0, with a best of 6/42. Peter played across five different grades this season, but spent most of it in the Seconds. He can bat anywhere in the order, but gives us great flexibility here at No. 8.

Craig Pridham

Prids was the stand-out bowler for the Club this season, opening the attack in the Firsts and taking 27 wickets @ 18.7, including 7/11 to rout Aberfeldie Park. He’s a better bat than his stats show, and could either move up the order in this team or score heavily at the end.

Paul Hobbs

Hobbie was ever-reliable behind the stumps in the Fourths, with 10 catches and 8 stumpings. His ability to get up to the stumps to our sharper bowlers unsettles the opposition, and his victims this year include the first-ever stumpings off Darren Nagle and Kevin Gardiner in their long careers flinging the leather down.

Pat Taylor

Pat missed a month with a shoulder injury, but still took 25 wickets @ 10.1 with his right-arm spinners, which he can send down all day and land on a sixpence. Playing in our Sixths, Pat won the North West Metro Cricket Association Barron Shield bowling award.

12th man: Simon Thornton

Desperately unlucky to miss a spot in the 11 after taking 26 wickets @ 15.3 while captaining our Seconds. Simon’s an astute leader and sent down 173 accurate overs across the course of the season – the most of anyone in the Club.

6 Wisden Player of the Year Retrospective

The Wisden Player of the Year annual list of five exceptional players was an innovation introduced for the 1991/92 season, and continued until 1997/98 – except for 1994/95.

This prestigious honor was reintroduced in 2005/06, and has continued with much fanfare since. The gap years in Wisden in recent years stood out like a sore thumb. To fill the gaps and right the wrongs of omission, an eminent Panel comprising Darren Nagle, Danny Terzini and Charlie Walker pored over the records and stats of the Wisdens from the missing years, and after much debate have retrospectively selected the Wisden Players of the Year for the missing seasons. Darren and Danny played throughout those seasons, and so were able to bring a first-hand perspective to their deliberations.

The players honored by selection in the missing years, and a brief rundown on their seasons, are shown here.

1994/95:

The Panel shortlisted 14 players initially from the season's playing list, then trimmed the final candidates down to eight. The last cut was the hardest. After deliberation, the 1994/95 Wisden Players of the Year are:

- Danny Fitzpatrick – great all-round season with 27 wickets @ 17.4 and 351 runs @ 39.0.
- Doug McLaggan – 140 overs; 31 wickets @ 11.6. Backed up with 196 runs @ 21.7 as a second string to his bow.
- Darren Nagle – 200 overs; 40 wickets @ 12.1. Sensational! Plus 120 runs @ 13.3.
- Mick Harvey – magnificent year with the bat, with 658 runs @ 54.8.
- Bill Loughron – often under-rated, but 447 runs @ 40.6 shows his value.

1998/99:

The Panel shortlisted 12 players, then trimmed the final candidates down to seven. 1998/99 was a Thirds premiership year. After deliberation, the 1998/99 Wisden Players of the Year are:

- Allan Burke – an all-powerful season with 418 runs @ an incredible 69.7. They couldn't get him out!
- Shane Phillips – powerhouse in the Thirds with 33 wickets @ 18.0 and 204 runs @ 22.7.
- Bob Sciacchitano – another Thirds premiership player: 31 wickets @ 15.3 and 170 runs @ 17.0.
- Ian Denny – 32 wickets @ 13.6; 273 runs @ 30.3. Say no more!
- Danny Fitzpatrick – another great all-round season: 178 overs; 37 wickets @ 13.9 and 141 runs @ 12.8.

Season Review 2011/12

Both the Thirds and Fifths made the finals in the North D2 grade, and our other finalists were the Firsts, the Fourth's and our one-day grades, the Seventh's and the Eighth's.

Our Under 14 Black team and Under 12s were also finalists.

The Finals

The finals weren't a happy hunting ground for Moonee Valley in 2011/12, even though our teams did well enough to contest them.

The Seventh's and Eighth's were washed out in the first week of the finals, and were sadly eliminated without bowling or facing a ball, due to ladder position.

The Firsts, Thirds, Fourth's, Fifth's and Under 14 Black were beaten in the semi finals, and only our Under 12s were able to win through to the Grand Final. They duly won – which means that we have won a senior or junior flag every season going back to 2003/04, apart from our dry year in 2010/11.

The weather and the season

The vagaries of the weather didn't have the same impact as the constantly-interrupted 2010/11 season, but we still lost time to rain.

The Firsts lost five days, the Thirds and Sixth's lost four days, other teams lost three days and we were impacted by walkovers. The Fourth's were twice in outright positions but thwarted by weather.

In one game shortened to a one-dayer due to rain on Week 1, the Fourth's blasted out Craigieburn for 29 and made the runs in a handful of overs. The game was all over before the first drinks break – and was a certainty for an outright if we'd had the two days of play.

Player of the Year Retrospective2

1999/00:

A tough year for the judges: The Panel shortlisted 18 players, then with great difficulty pared the list back to seven final candidates. Trimming another two was real hard. After deliberation, the 1999/00 Wisden Players of the Year are:

- Steve Allan – sensational season in his debut year at Moonee Valley: 175 overs; 40 wickets @ 13.3.
- Mark Cini – second year at the Club: 395 runs @ 43.9 and a handy 17 wickets @ 17.1. Hard to leave out!
- Mark Gauci – another second-year player, playing one-dayers: powerful 486 runs @ 34.7 and 17 wickets @ 16.1.
- Ian Denny – hard to keep him out. 32 wickets @ 11.5; 291 runs @ 29.1. A great all-rounder.
- Glen Courts – debut year. 628 runs @ 52.3. Say no more.

2000/01:

The Panel shortlisted 14 players with excellent seasons, then found six outstanding candidates. It was a big ask to have to leave one out. But the Panel stuck to its task, and the 2000/01 Wisden Cricketers of the Year in a season when the Firsts won our only MMVCA turf Premiership are:

- Glen Courts – even better than his debut year – if that's possible. 636 runs @ 63.6.
- Ian Denny – a colossus with the bat: 440 runs @ 73.3. And a more-than-handy 20 wickets @ 15.0 in the Firsts.
- Mick Harvey – 361 runs @ 40.1. No wonder we won the flag, with a powerful top order in the Firsts.
- David Jolley – sheer weight of runs: 360 @ 40.0.
- Daniel Phillips – strong all-round performance across the season – 310 runs @ 31.0 and 18 wickets @ 13.3.

2001/02:

A shortlist of 14 players, which the Panel then condensed to seven final candidates. After further discussion and debate, the Moonee Valley players honored as the 2001/02 Wisden Cricketers of the Year are:

- Shane Golds – 627 runs @ 62.7; high score of 175; two tons, three 50s; 15 catches as keeper; 38 overs as bowler.
- Mick Elliott – a lion-hearted season netted 27 wickets @ 16.4, including a tireless performance in the Firsts GF.
- David Jolley – 358 runs @ 44.8, including a score of 106 plus three 50s.
- Damien Bilsborow – 396 runs @ 44.0, including four 50s. Also took a handy 10 catches.
- Ian Denny – 443 runs @ 55.4, including five 50s. Value with the ball as well – 13 wickets @ 23.3.

2002/03:

The judges got tougher this year, and the Panel shortlisted only 11 players in our first season in the VTCA. The list was then pared back to six final candidates. Our 2002/03 Wisden Players of the Year are:

- Rex Bennett – coached us into our first VTCA season. Always there with 27 wickets @ 10.5. 143 runs @ 35.8.
- Geoff McKeown – 299 runs @ 27.2, including 108no. Excellent glove work with 21 catches.
- Steve Allan – 23 wickets @ an incredible 7.3, off 89 overs, including 23 maidens.
- Mick Harvey – 482 runs @ 37.1, including a knock of 145.
- Mark Gauci – revelled in high-grade turf cricket, with 404 runs @ 26.9. Great change bowler with 13 wickets @ 6.6.

2003/04:

Fourteen players on the shortlist. Seven final candidates in our promotion year to the VTCA's North A Division. We re-established a Fifth Eleven as we started our record expansion phase. The 2003/04 Wisden Cricketers of the Year are:

- Sandro Capocchi – a master with the bat – 356 runs @ 39.6, with a Club season-high score of 136.
- Ian Denny – always up there! 414 runs @ 31.8 and 14 wickets @ 16.1.
- Peter Smith – come in spinner! 25 wickets @ 15.6, including 6/11 in the Seconds v the now-defunct Glenroy Amateurs.
- Darren Nagle – all-round performances: 244 runs @ 18.8 and 12 wickets at a miserly 8.8.
- Tom King – young gun blasted 298 runs @ 21.3 and took 18 wickets @ 24.4.

2004/05:

Probably the hardest year for our retrospective judges. The Panel shortlisted 13 players, and trimmed back to seven final candidates. The 2004/05 Wisden Cricketers of the Year are:

- Steven Ball – great all-round season: 29 wickets @ 14.0, including 7/13; and 240 runs @ 21.8 in the one-dayers.
- Geoff Smith – First Eleven stalwart with 28 wickets @ 12.8. A handy 117 runs @ 13.0.
- Mark Schuliga – one of the great bowling seasons in Club history, with 39 wickets @ 11.6.
- Jim Polonidis – never gives in with bat or ball – 281 runs @ 25.5, including his maiden ton. 20 wickets @ 10.4.
- Jesse Felle – youthful all-rounder: 27 wickets @ 12.8 and 103 runs @ 10.3.

Season Review 2011/12

As it was, the result was the lowest-ever opposition score ever recorded against Moonee Valley.

A group of our players now have the distinction of playing in Moonee Valley's highest-ever score and inflicting the lowest-ever score – Brett Curran, Steven Ball, Dean Lawson and Paul Hobbs played in the Craigieburn match and were also part of the team which clubbed 3/475 against Buckley Park in November, 2008.

We lost three or four days to wet weather across most grades during the course of the season, but that was nothing compared to 2011/12.

40th anniversary

The 2011/12 season saw the Moonee Valley Cricket Club celebrate the 40th anniversary of its founding by Ray Storey and Rod McLeod.

A large group celebrated the milestone on January 28 at an Ascot Vale reception centre, and a great night was had by all.

We had speeches by past greats Greg Peters, Laurie Mayne and Club founder Ray Storey, and equally compelling presentations by greats who are still pulling on the whites in Darren Nagle, John Talone, Ian Denny and Sandro Capocchi.

President Charlie Walker put a more contemporary perspective on the Club, with a rundown on our progress since juniors started in 1996/97.

Highlights of the night were the cutting of the 40th anniversary cake, designed and donated by past women's captain and current committee member Tien Polonidis, a loop of old and not-so-old photos organised by secretary Peter Golding, and a display of memorabilia curated by Kevin Gardiner.

Ray Storey put forward the reason for the formation of our great club. Ray, Rod and a few others were happily playing for the Moonee Ponds Salvation Army Cricket Club at Ormond Park – but then the Salvos decided that its players needed to attend church at least once a month. Ray & Co weren't keen to submit to religious persecution – and so our Club was founded by the breakaway heretics.

Our Grades

We used 24 players in the First Eleven – compared with 18 in 2010/11 and 16 in 2009/10. None of our players turned out in all 11 matches leading up to the finals – although four of the guys played 10 games.

Season Review 2011/12

Our Seconds were impacted by the turnover in the Firsts, and so were not regularly able to field a stable team from game to game. Our Thirds were a combination of age and youth, with the mix carrying them through to second spot on the ladder in the North D2 grade – which was a two-day Sunday grade.

Our Fourths were our highest-graded hard wicket team, and finished third in the North West Metro's Musgrove Shield competition. We were hard hit by losing a day of cricket in two games where we proved we were a strong chance of outright wins.

The Fifts put together some excellent games and forced their way into the North D2 finals, and probably came closest of all our finals teams to snatching a semi win.

Our other two-day hard wicket team, the Sixths, were in the top four all season, but tapered off after Christmas due to some personnel changes and missed the finals when the last round was washed out into a draw.

Wins were harder to come by in our one-day grades – the Sevens and Eighths – but we thought we were a chance on paper come quarter-final time until the games were washed out. As the lower-placed teams on the ladder, both our sides were eliminated without the chance of bowling or facing a ball.

In 2010/11 our Thirds finished second on the ladder in the old Moreland-Moonee Valley B Turf grade, while the Fifts made the finals in C Turf. The Thirds were competing against the Second Elevens of the other teams. The reality is that had the merger with the VTCA not taken place, our Thirds would most likely have been pushed up to A Turf – competing against First Elevens from the other clubs. In our view, we would have been more than competitive.

And quite likely our Fifts would have moved up to B Turf, competing against Second Elevens. These likely moves were a testament to how strong we have become across the grades.

We're a big club

We have tapered off a bit since we were officially the biggest cricket club in Victoria in the 2008/09 season, with 26 senior and junior teams.

In 2011/12 we fielded 14 teams – eight men's teams and six junior teams. While we're no longer the biggest cricket club in the State, we're still way up there, and will need to refocus on what we need to do to regrow our junior ranks.

Our women's cricket commitment

Moonee Valley was hard hit by the creation of a new women's team at Craigieburn. We lost five of our players to that team – which was understandable, as they lived in that area.

However, it proved to be a vital blow against us. We struggled to put together six or seven players each week at the start of the season, and with those numbers had to forfeit each time.

After four weeks of searching and advertising we made the reluctant but necessary decision to withdraw our team.

However, Moonee Valley is determined that it will resurrect women's cricket at our Club, and we have the commitment of the Victorian Women's Cricket Association to give us every assistance to get a team on the park again in 2012/13.

The coin-tossers

Mark Gauci was appointed as captain of our First Eleven for his seventh year, and the stability and consistency at the top was vital for a season that started with the transfer of several experienced players to other clubs, the return of our 2010/11 English imports to the Old Dart, and the delayed arrivals of our Pakistani internationals.

Mark's leadership helped hold the team together while we drifted towards the lower reaches of the ladder and the relegation zone. We lost a couple of games against lower-ranked teams, which had us on the back foot.

But once Mark had the players he needed at his disposal after the Christmas break, our climb back up the ladder was rapid – culminating in a semi final appearance.

Simon Thornton took on the role of skipper of the Seconds. Player numbers were quite unsettled over the course of the season, impacted to some extent by the fact that the Thirds and Fifths were Sunday-only teams and the players from those grades were often unavailable to switch to a Saturday. Even so, the Seconds chalked up some impressive victories.

Lou Raffaele joined experienced skipper Dino Sapuppo as co-captains of the Thirds.

Brett Curran was reappointed captain of the Fourths, Danny Terzini skipper of the Sixths and Allan Cumming was back in charge for another year as captain of the Eighths.

Jesse Nankivell-Sandor stepped in as captain of the Fifths half-way through the season after a series of stand-in skippers, and did a wonderful job – pulling together a group of players and leading them into the finals.

After last taking on the role in 2008/09, Richard Cooney put his hand up for another stint as a one-day captain, taking charge of the Seventh's – where he oversaw the development of some promising players coming through juniors.

Clare Arden was reappointed captain of the women's team, but they never got onto the field.

Spud's 300

Club great Darren Nagle became the first Moonee Valley player to reach 300 games when he took to the field with the Fourths on October 30, in a game that was fittingly played at Ormond Park.

The 300-game milestone is a testament to a man who has done everything at the Club – a record 13 years as president, several years on the committee before that, Life Member, great leader of our Club and now a key coach and leader in our junior ranks. Age certainly has not wearied him.

Spud was fittingly man of the match in his 300th – he got the first breakthrough of the match with a smart runout, then took 4/15 off six overs as we restricted Greenvale to 9/111 off its 34 overs. Spud then knocked up 40 not out as we passed the total without the loss of any wickets in just 16 overs.

Spud shared the achievement off-field with a large group of admirers – and his onfield teammates in our Fourth Eleven included fellow life members John Talone and Ian Denny. Spud ran through a guard of honor of his Fourth Eleven teammates and current and past players, and the clubrooms were decorated with a big banner put together by the Talone family.

Life members on hand to share Spud's achievement included Peter Gardiner, Warwick Nolan, Sandro Capocchi, Dan Terzini, Jim McKenzie, Bob Sciacchitano, Joe Ansaldo and Charlie Walker, while other notables from past playing ranks included Tony Gleeson, Daniel Phillips, Stephen Radford, Tony Hicks, Geoff Smith, Alan Thomas and Spud's brother Terry "Tex" Nagle.

Spud demonstrated his ongoing value to the Club with one of his better seasons in 2011/12, amassing 420 runs at an average of 60, and taking 16 wickets @ 11.81. Long may he reign!

Other significant milestones

Bob Sciacchitano became just the sixth player in Moonee Valley's history to record 250 games when he brought up the milestone during the 2011/12 season, while three loyal servants of our Club – Mark Cini, Dean Jukic and Paul Nicol – all reached the 150 game mark. We now have 27 players who have notched up 150 or more games.

Peter Smith moved to 11th in our most-wickets Hall of Fame when he motored past the 200 mark, while Jesse Felle, Dean Jukic and Bob Sciacchitano each posted their 150th wickets.

Ian Denny is just six games away from joining Spud Nagle as a triple-centurion in games played.

Player number analysis

In 2011/12, 148 players took to the field in a Moonee Valley senior team. This is down on the 176 players for the Club in 2010/11, the 206 players in 2009/10 and the 222 players in our big year of 2008/09.

In past seasons our women's team had been a ready supplier of new players, but its layoff in 2011/12 meant player numbers were restricted.

Of our 148 players this season, 32 played their first senior game for Moonee Valley. All up, 15 players who were still in juniors played senior cricket for the Club, while a further 34 of our players had graduated through the juniors in past seasons.

The 15 juniors played a combined 60 games over the course of the season, for an average of four games each. This demonstrates that we're not putting too much pressure on our young players to fill senior spots.

Our teams took to the field in a combined total of 93 matches over the season, after factoring out walkovers, byes and washouts. That means that on average we had one junior in the 11 (or 13) of two-thirds of our games. We probably need to be doing a bit more to encourage our young players to get more games under their belts before they graduate from juniors and step up to senior cricket full-time.

We have been successful over the years in recruiting mums and dads of juniors to pull on the whites for Moonee Valley, and in 2011/12 23 parents of juniors, or of players who came through juniors, played for us. Our 32 first-time players this season is one up on the previous season, but still down on the 53 new players in 2009/10 and 41 in 2008/09.

How our teams performed

Our priority for the First Eleven was to re-establish ourselves in the VTCA North A Division, and use it as a platform to springboard back up to the higher grades.

The first five rounds saw a Round 1 win, then two losses and two draws as the next four rounds all lost a day due to rain. We lost the games in Rounds 6 & 7 either side of Christmas, before three good wins and a rain-affected draw saw us through to the finals.

Season Review 2011/12

The Seconds under Simon Thornton were thereabouts for most of the season, but a few close losses – starting with a 2-run heart-stopper in Round 1 – set the tone for the year. An 8-run loss in Round 4, and the Aberfeldie Park game, which we ultimately “lost” twice – first by 15 runs on the first innings and then by three miserly wickets after setting a target, declaring and trying to fire them out in the second – left us adrift of the finals.

The Thirds were in the top part of the table all season, and finished second. Unfortunately our nemesis, Sunshine Heights, got hold of us in the semi, consigning us to the lowest-ever score for the Thirds.

The season's two derbies between the Thirds and the Fifts were entertaining. The Thirds were well on top in the first meeting, but the second derby was one of the matches of the season – with the Thirds narrowly winning first innings points, and the Fifts then batting, declaring and setting an enticing target. The match came down to the last over before the last wicket was taken, giving the Fifts an enthralling outright.

The Mighty Fighting Fourth's lost their first game by 3 runs and then the second game after having the opposition 9 wickets down still 26 runs adrift. That left us languishing.

But Round 3 was the “Spud 300” game, and we bounced back to round up Greenvale's 111 with an unbeaten stand of 117, with Spud Nagle hitting 40no and Dean Lawson 72no. We didn't lose another game until the semi final, when the score got away from us in the last hour or so of Day 1, and we fell short in reeling it in come Day 2.

The Fifts had a patched-up team for much of the year, but struggled manfully through to stay in touch of the top four. The second derby was their watershed game, when the Fifts lost the first innings but came storming home in the second, thanks to a swashbuckling 64 from Geoff McKeown and then 6 wickets to Peter Smith.

The Fifts were the closest of our senior teams to getting us into a Grand Final, and had an enthralling semi before falling just short.

Season Review 2011/12

Danny Terzini's Sixths were a couple of games clear on top of the ladder leading up to Christmas, but as was the case in the previous season, dropped off from being a pacesetter before the break to missing the finals.

The Sixths still appeared destined for finals come the last round, but in a curious administrative decision, the NWMCA rejigged the points on the ladder half way through the match, and our team went from being a comfortable 12 points clear of the fifth-based team to being equal on points. When rain consigned that last round to a draw, we were out.

The Sevenths were a development team, and got encouragingly close on a couple of occasions, as well as snatching a win in Round 8. The inability of the team to post big scores seemed to be the biggest problem.

The Sevenths lost three games to washouts during the season – and ironically dropped out of the finals race due to another washout in the quarter-final. The highest-placed team went through.

The Eighths didn't post a score above 100 up until Round 9 – the last game before Christmas – but even then our 9/196cc, anchored by Trent Milne's 100no – was not enough to get us over the line.

Round 10 saw us break through for a win. And again the curse of the quarter-finals washout finished our season prematurely, when we were of the view that the team selected was going to give it a good shake.

Season Review 2011/12

Twenty20

Moonee Valley again entered two teams in the North West Metro Cricket Association Twenty20 competition. Our West team lost only one game during the six-round challenges, but then went down in the semi final. Our North team found the going a little harder, but were still in the race late into the challenges.

The Twenty20 competition has proved to be a change from training for the 22 players selected each round, and give the guys a hit-out under match conditions. We take the games seriously.

We take off our hat to our bowlers

An unprecedented three Moonee Valley bowlers achieved senior hat-tricks during the season.

Young gun James Thorneycroft rattled Burnside Springs in the Sixths in Round 4, while Life Member and 250-gamer Bob Sciacchitano was playing at home at Ormond Park in the Sevenths when he brought up his hat-trick against Barkly Street Uniting. It was Bob's 249th game.

And in the First Eleven on the adjoining turf oval, Craig Pridham took his best Valley figures of 7/11 as we routed Aberfeldie Park for 51 in their second dig.

Season Review 2011/12

As former Valleys coach Tony Gleeson opined, it was probably the best-ever haul of unassisted wickets by anyone in the history of our Club. But we wouldn't know unless we pored over the old books. Craig's haul comprised three LBWs, three wickets out bowled and a caught-and-bowled.

Our third leg of hat-trickers for the year was Bede Gannon in the Fifts in Round 11. Incredibly, Bede has now taken three hat-tricks for Moonee Valley, following on from his achievements in Under 14s and Under 16s.

Our junior rep stars

Moonee Valley had a number of players try out in the Under 14 representative squads over the Christmas break, and an amazing six of our players pulled on the NWMCA cap.

And that was on top of Under 16s player Peter Wright, who also made his debut in our Firsts in 2011/12, being selected in the Victorian Under 15 team.

Peter received his Victorian cap at the MCG during the Boxing Day Test from former Australian quick Merv Hughes, and represented his State in the national championships in Hobart from February 25 to March 3.

The North West rep squads were an excellent opportunity to showcase the talent coming through Moonee Valley's junior program.

Charles Aitken made it into the Under 14 First Eleven, and Charles Bibby then played in the team when he answered the distress call for an opening batsman.

Season Review 2011/12

Anthony Cafari was selected in the Under 14 Second Eleven, and the best keeper in the comp, Luke Rotunno, also received a late call-up when the rep keeper became ill. With the Under 14 teams, Jake Toa was unlucky to miss selection and Matt Wenlock received a late call-up but was already booked on a trip to NZ.

Jess D'Elton, and Julia Spagna from our U12s were both selected in the North West Wizards Girls U14 team. It is a wonderful achievement to have so many of our kids selected in rep teams and we should all be very proud of them.

Come in spinner!

Former Australian Test cricketer and past Test selector Jim Higgs attended Moonee Valley training on December 1 to offer some expert tuition and advice to our Under 14 lads.

Jim was at the session from 4.30 until well after 6pm, when he was passing some extra tips on to the Under 14 coaching panel in the clubrooms. His attendance was arranged by Matt Hogg, whose sons Charlie and Archie play juniors at Moonee Valley.

A leg spin bowler, Jim Higgs played 22 Tests, taking 66 wickets at an average of 31.16. Jim Played his last Test for Australia against India at the MCG in 1981 - well before any of our Under 14s were born.

Moonee Valley's a healthy place

Moonee Valley Cricket Club was in the news on January 29 when the Victorian Government chose to launch its Population Health Survey report at Ormond Park.

Season Review 2011/12

Club Vice President Simon Thornton joined State Health Minister David Davis to front the media and discuss healthy lifestyles, and our Under 12s, playing at home, joined in to promote the virtues of eating plenty of fruit.

Mr Davis said the Moonee Valley Cricket Club was an excellent model for a healthy and active lifestyle. Footage of Ormond Park and our juniors ran on the Channel 9 and 7 news bulletins on the night of the launch.
