2007/08 - Wisden Cricketers of the Year

Steven Ball

Is there anything this man can't do? On the side of 50 where most would be looking to put up their feet and retire, Steven hit his maiden century, with 110no in the Fourths. He made his cricket debut for Moonee Valley in 2003 in a Dad's Army in our reconstituted Fifts. He's won one-day batting and bowling awards, has one of our 15-best bowling performances of all time with 7/13, kept wickets in a Fourths Grand Final and has held his own in every grade from Seconds down. A sports psychologist and motivator, Steven has coached juniors and is a leader around the Club. He was also one of our Wisden Cricketers of the Year in 2005/06. And his 2007/08 season? A return of 361 runs @ 40.1 and 11 wickets @ 13.9 meant he was one of the best.

Ian Denny

Most games, most runs, most wickets for Moonee Valley – and despite being strictly part-time at Moonee Valley these days Ian is the Perennial Performer. Fill-in player is not an accurate description even though Egbert played Fifts, Sixths, Sevens & Ninths. A century in each of the first three, but a relative “failure” with a top score of just 70 in the Ninths. There was no shortage of sixes in his 535 runs from just six games, at a Bradmanesque average of 107 – our second-highest season aggregate for 2007/08. Ian's game in the Sixths was by special request to lock horns with his Airport West footballers – and 155 runs later they knew they had seen the Master. Had a quieter season with the ball, but you always know you are going to get plenty of variety.

Sam O'Brien

Sam had the background of a senior one-day season in 2006/07, while still an Under 14 player, as the springboard to a big year. School commitments this season meant he was restricted to Sunday games, so Sam played mainly in the Sixths and Ninths. In the last round of the season we selected a youth team for the Thirds and Sam and the boys didn't let us down. Cool under pressure, his 26 got us within sight of the target in the stirring win over St Andrews. Sam hit two 50s without flinching in games against the bully one-day sides in the Ninths. He placed great value on his wicket at all times, with three not-outs, which shows in his excellent seniors batting average for the season – 253 runs @ 50.6. Sam was also well on top with his accurate right-arm medium pace, taking 14 wickets @ 16.5. With another year of Under 16s left, watch this space!

Sean O'Kane

Played his debut season at Moonee Valley to enjoy a hit with mates – but there was little joy for the opposition. With his heavy bat, Sean took little time in getting his eye in, and smashed two centuries in the Eighths on the way to 449 runs @ 44.9. He also had plenty of tricks with his right hand sharp medium pacers, taking 15 @ 16.7. Sean played a key one-day RH opening bat role in our Eighths, and our settled line-up for the second part of the season meant we missed the finals by a whisker. Sean also helped with a mentoring role for some of the younger members of the team. Look for big things in Sean's second season, as there are already plans under way for an all-out one-day assault, with a steady line-up right from the first round.

Arosha Perera

Early washouts meant Arosha's delayed return to Australia didn't affect our Firsts – but enabled him to play make-up games in the Thirds, where he got his eye in with 182 runs @ 91. Also set the world on fire in Twenty20, topped by an imperious 125 off just 51 balls. Overall season stats of 563 runs @ 56.3 and 9 wickets @ 29.1. Arosha also made the third-highest total of runs among all the overseas permit players in VTCA First Eleven teams. Despite this, we still don't think Arosha has had his break-out season in Australia – and watch out when it happens! One of the most popular players at Moonee Valley, Arosha is also a stand-out in the field. With three seasons now under his belt at Moonee Valley, we are looking at our Sri Lankan international to be a 100-game player with us.

4 2007/08 Wisden Team of the Year

Batting order

Sean O’Kane

Sandro Capocchi (v-capt)

Dean Lawson

Arosha Perera (capt)

Ian Denny

Sam O’Brien

Steven Ball

Peter Golding (w)

Paul Nicol

Antony Sherer

Peter Smith

Robbie Ball (12th)

Our Team of the Year is selected from across all grades, in batting order. It’s highly subjective as it’s near-impossible to make a decision based on pure ability when assessing relative performances against the standard of the grade our players are in. So we’ve used the criteria of team balance, player performances relative to their grade, consistency and performance over the year and selected a team based on merit and 2007/08 results. Many players were considered and can feel unlucky to miss out – but our team would give anyone a run for their money!

Sean O’Kane

Sean absolutely canded the opposition when he got going, with 2 centuries in the Eighths. Was always looking to loft the ball over the boundary with his heavy bat, and unsettle the opposition attack. Hit 449 runs @ 44.9 as a right-hander and was more than handy with the ball, taking 15 wickets @ 16.7. Sean’s first season with the Club was a revelation.

Sandro Capocchi

Captained the Fifths and was stiff to miss out on the finals. With a season-high of 144 plus two 50s, Sandro led from the front and had a major role in the development of a group of promising Under 16s. 417 runs @ 46.3 underlines the consistent season that Sandro had. When you hit 4s and 6s, you don’t have to run. Reliable slips catch as well.

Dean Lawson

Great season as Sixths opener with 405 runs @ 45, Deano gives our top 3 in this team some added firepower. His season played a key role in the Sixths making finals. Able to slam an attack or build an innings. Dean was also in our Wisden Team of the Year last season.

Arosha Perera

Yoshi had an excellent year with 563 runs @ 56.3 – but the chilling fact (for the opposition) is he still hasn’t fully hit his straps in Australia. Played in the Firsts with 2 make-up games in the Thirds. Also adds variety with his medium-pacers and leg spin, and leads from the front on the field with his excellent fielding and cricket brain.

Ian Denny

Any team would feel confident with Egbert at No. 5. Playing across the grades, he scored 535 runs @ 107.0, and at No. 5 can slaughter any attack or defend as required. And his bowling – all varieties – can never be discounted as an option. His LH batting gives us variety in a team of right-handers.

Sam O’Brien

Impossible to overlook Sam, who’s still in Under 16s. Played most of the season in the Sixths, plus one-dayers and a match-winning innings in the Thirds. Great composure to compile two 50s. Senior figures of 253 runs @ 50.6 and 14 wickets @ 16.5 with his deadly accurate medium pace earn Sam his spot in this team at No. 6.

Steven Ball

Is there anything he can’t do? Played everywhere from the Seconds down. Belted his maiden (unbeaten) ton in the Fourths to ice a top season. Gives late-order firepower to this team with 361 runs @ 40.1 and 11 wickets @ 13.9.

Peter Golding (w)

Answered a call to arms to come out of retirement and debut in the Nincths. In between leg injuries Peter showed his class with the gloves and the bat, also standing out in the Sixths and Fifths. His 198 runs @ 33 make Peter a luxury batting at No. 8 in this Team of the Year.

Paul Nicol

Genuine opening bowler with 19 wickets @ 16.5, mainly in our Firsts. You just know Pickle will never let you down once he takes the field. Made 134 runs @ 33.5 from limited opportunities, so this team bats right down the order.

Antony Sherer

We raised the bar for The Publican to come out of retirement this season and he led the attack in the Sixths. Had batsmen on the back foot all year with his bounce and pace. With 20 wickets @ 14.3, Antony opens the bowling in our Team of the Year.

Peter Smith

The unreadable right-arm leg spinner. Pete took 21 wickets @ 10.8 in the Thirds and Fourths and is a key attack weapon in our Team of the Year. Safe as houses in the gully as well. You always know you’ll get a top effort from Pete year in, year out.

12th man: Robbie Ball

Wicketkeeper all season in our turf grades, culminating with a game behind the stumps in the Firsts. An inspiration in terms of endeavour and commitment – Rob’s still in Under 16s and is only going to get better. Much better.
