2006/07 - Wisden Cricketers of the Year

Rajan Aiyappan

Our season-high wicket-taker across all grades with 31 – all in the Firsts – Raj ensured that all other clubs saw Moonee Valley as a difficult assignment. His average of 14.2 confirmed that he was a real danger man for Valley. Raj was also a go-to man with the bat, selected anywhere from opener to No. 9 as he accumulated 196 runs for the season. A dedicated trainer, Raj was an important role model for our younger players in his first season at Moonee Valley. He easily won our Firsts bowling award and also convincingly took out the Club Champion trophy. He had a top score of 83no and best bowling of 5/28. His best bowling came in the last match, when he ripped out Sunshine YCW's middle order just when they were threatening to ruin our end to the season. Eight catches for the year show Raj is also a dynamo in the field.

Jesse Felle

One of the prime movers in the surge of the Fourths to the C Matting Grand Final. Jesse had a true all-rounder's season, but his statistics demonstrate he's a front-line strike bowler and a punishing bat. He took 30 wickets @ 15.4 and made 350 runs @ 35. He finished second in the MMVCA bowling award and third in the Association's champion player award. He blasted a magnificent punishing 51no when we started to look a bit shaky against top-of-the-ladder Royal Park in the semi-final. Jesse's season included three 50s and a best bowling performance of 6/36 against West Coburg. Jesse played his 50th senior game for Valleys in the Grand Final, where he took 2 wickets. He won our Moonee Valley Award for 2006/07 with 739 points, underlining a great season.

Iraklis Kolokithas

Ira blossomed in his first season out of junior ranks. He'd already caught the notice of our experts when he was combining senior and junior duties with his steady, unflappable play. Ira made the opening bowler's spot his own in our Seconds, and showed a glimpse of the future when promoted to the Firsts for one game. He took 26 wickets @ 15.5 across the season. His season's best haul of 6/30 came in the last home-and-away match, when he helped blast Sunshine YCW out for 103 in the first innings and set up the outright victory that got us into the finals. Dropped catches in the second innings left Iraklis one wicket short of what would have been a well-deserved 10 for the match. He had limited opportunities with the bat due to our settled batting order, but we know from his junior career that he will grab the chance whenever presented.

Joshua Maginness

Josh was one of our success stories of the season, starting off in the Fifths and ending up a fixture in the Seconds as a rising star with a bullet. A right-hand bat and handy leg-spinner, Joshua has the ability to craft an innings. Smart observers tip he'll go a long way. Joshua's season netted 221 runs @ 20.1, but his stats in the Seconds show how well he adapted to playing on turf. An average of 40.3 – double his overall season average, and two 40s, including his highest senior score of 49no, show Josh is a long-term player at the highest level. Eight catches for the season demonstrate he's sure and sharp in the field, while six wickets @ 23.5 confirm he's a handful when he's got the ball in his hand. Watch this space – we've got a star in the making!

Darren Nagle

Spud seemed to shake off the shackles of responsibility after stepping down from 13 years as Club president, and had his finest season. He opted to step back to the Seconds, but was first to answer the call when the First Eleven needed a steady influence. The consummate team player, Darren made 559 runs @ 50.8, with one century and four 50s – including his highest-ever score of 139 as part of a club-record partnership of 300. His dominance in the 2nd XI can be seen by his average of 66.2 in the Seconds. This tireless workhorse is set to become Moonee Valley's second player to reach 250 games when he takes to the field in the first round of 2007/08. A great one at encouraging young players coming through the ranks, Darren used his release from Club administrative duties to take up another cause – coaching our stars of the future in the Under 10s.

Welcome to a new Wisden initiative – our Team of the Year in batting order. It's selected from across all grades, in batting order. It's highly subjective as it's near-impossible to make a decision based on pure ability when assessing relative performances against standard of the grade our players are in. So we've used the criteria of team balance, player performance relative to their grade, consistency and sustained performance over the year and selected a team in batting order, based on merit and 2006/07 performances. Many players were considered and can be considered unlucky to miss out! – but our team here would give anyone a run for their money!

Darren Nagle

Any batting line-up with Spud at the top is going to have a good foundation to build on. He made 559 runs @ 50.8, top score 139 and four 50s. A bowling change option with 5 wickets @ 29.8. Inspiring in the field with his talk and support.

Rahul Sharma

Captained the Fourths to the Grand Final in his first year as skipper, leading from the front as an opener with 394 runs @ 43.8. Four 50s. Prepared to absorb the pressure until the job is done. His first MVCC century is only a matter of time. Ten wickets with medium-pacers @ 19.4.

Simon Payton

Specialist No. 3 in the Sevenths, with four 50s in five games – three of them unbeaten. Scored 300 runs @ 33.3. Demonstrated he can build an innings and bat for the duration.

Rajan Aiyappan

Strike bowler who's also a more-than-handy batsman. Scored 196 runs @ 24.5. Raj would spearhead our attack, on the back of his 31 wickets in the Firsts at a miserly average of 14.2. Hard to get away – 33 maidens in his 142 overs.

Ian Denny

Any team would feel confident with Eggbert at No. 5. He scored 411 runs @ 45.7, and at No. 5 can slaughter any attack or defend as required. A great spin option with 15 wickets @ 12.8 – and can still sling down the quick ones to give us more variety.

Dean Lawson

Takes the role of front-line spinner in this team with his offies, but just as punishing with the bat at No. 6. Took 14 wickets @ 12.6. Made 321 runs as Eighths opener @ 24.7, with top score of 90no. With his opening bat background, Deano can either slam an attack from No. 6 or protect his wicket.

Domenic Chiera

True all-rounder at No. 7. Took 21 wickets @ 19.6 in the Sixths and Eighths, and made 296 runs @ 29.6, with two 50s. A gun in the field with 13 catches. Quick enough to trouble most batsmen.

Jesse Felle

What a team if we can have Jesse coming in at No. 8. His season yielded 30 wickets @ 15.4 and 350 runs @ 35, with three 50s. Can rip the opposition apart as opening or first-change bowler, then dispatch their attack to all parts of the field.

Danny Terzini (w)

Classy wicketkeeper, with 15 catches and two stumpings. Didn't have his best season with the bat, but we know his capabilities. Gives us a great batting line-up coming in at No. 9.

Iraklis Kolokithas

You just know Ira will get the job done taking the new ball. Took 26 wickets @ 15.5, with a best of 6/30 when the stakes were high to get the Seconds into the finals – and a total of nine for that match. Also knows how to bat.

Dino Sapuppo

Thirds skipper who led the way in his first season on turf, with 24 wickets @ 16.2. Proved that his nagging, accurate bowling is suited to the highest standards of cricket.

12th man: Evan Blythe

Sensational in the field, as he demonstrated nearly all season in the Firsts. Took an amazing 11 catches in the field, and proved an inspiration in terms of endeavour and commitment.
