The Five Cricketers of The Year

Gary Irons

After nearly 150 games in the First Eleven, GI made the decision to commit his vast experience and cricket knowledge to the club's lower grades this season. After an uneventful first game, Gary captured 3 for 0 and then 6 for 8 in the next two games. He led the Thirds' bowling attack with a masterly 39 wickets. However, a major change to Gary's game this year has been his consistency with the bat. On seven occasions he passed 20 ammassing 216 runs, including important runs in both finals.

Robert Lamberti

In only his third season of Luscombe Shield, Lambs has become the competitions most feared batsman. This year he passed fifty on no less than 6 occasions, which included two centuries. A most complete batsman, Bobby is famous for his delicate sweeping, the controlled power in his pull shots and his effortless driving. His 614 runs at 68.2 is sensational, but add to this his undeniable ability to take the occasional crucial wicket and his reliable fielding it is then that the true value of this young man is most obvious.

Sandro Capocchi

Appointed captain of the Second Eleven, Sandro's objective was to lead that side into the finals this season. This was not to be, however Sandro completed the most remarkable season in the club's history. A former First Eleven premiership player, he is a very powerful hitter of the ball through mid wicket and square leg. He repeatedly makes bowlers suffer for pitching too short to him. He scored four centuries during the season and finished with a remarkable 569 runs at an average of 63.2.

Jude Perera

Beginning his year with a wicketless match in the Third Eleven, Jude season culminated as a member of a First Eleven premiership. An incredible 64 wickets taken at a cost of just 10.8 runs each indicates his ability to cripple opposing batting sides. His bowling is persistent and accurate, but his greatest attribute is that he is just a yard or two quicker than most batsmen appreciate. He rarely bowls short which allows a captain to set wicket taking fields and this has had a lot to do with his success.

Shane Williams

In only his second season with the club, Suma completed an amazing cricketing season. Although he had never captained a team before, he led the Third Eleven with distinction and into a Grand Final first up. Added to this, he scored nearly 400 runs himself at an average of 45.3 which included a memorable 142 against eventual premiers Tullamarine. This was the club's highest score for the season in any eleven. As a batsman he is a fine driver who scores many runs with clean, straight hits.
