Wisden Cricketers of the Year

Steven Ball

As one of our junior parents and coaches, Steven has been a revelation since pulling on the whites himself with the return of one-day grades to Moonee Valley three seasons ago. One-day captain since the return, Steven has won our bowling award in each of the three seasons and the batting award in two. His 2005/06 returns of 286 runs @ 31.8 and 17 wickets @ 30.3 underline his consistency. Steven dropped back to the Sevens to play in the historic Ian Denny 250th match, and also tried his hand in Moonee Valley's One-Day Mid-Week Turf team. A great promoter of our juniors, Steven reached the 50-wicket mark during 05/06 and surged past 500 runs for the club. Next season will see the 50-game milestone reached, and there's no reason why this ageless parent won't keep on churning out the runs, wickets and games and setting targets for the youngsters coming through to try and chase down.

Mark Gauci

Mark's great start to the season spearheaded Moonee Valley's push to the top in the First Eleven, then he was given the job of holding everything together when personnel changes and injuries to key players after Christmas left the team depleted in the batting department. Mark's elevation to the captaincy was a fitting reward for the dedication and high standards of a man who originally joined Moonee Valley for the slap-and-giggle of one-day cricket. Mark's century against Old Mentonians was his seventh for the club – equal fourth-best of all time at Moonee Valley. Mark's season gleaned 308 runs @ 38.5, and his deceptive slow bowling reaped him 17 wickets in the highest grade at 20.9, with a magnificent 6/39 in Round 2. Mark – this season's Club Champion winner – is a wonderful role model to our young players: He proudly states he's at Moonee Valley for the long haul and will be a 200-game player.

Dean Jukic

Deano's achievement of winning both the batting and bowling awards for the Seconds was an emphatic statement of the impact of his season. He also won the batting award in 2000/01. Dean came agonisingly close to his second Moonee Valley century, with 94 against Aberfeldie Park in Round 3. A season yielding 274 runs @ 24.9 and 15 wickets @ 10.9 is a good result in anyone's language. His 5/2 in the first innings against Old Mentonians came on a day he was almost unplayable, and Dean is always dangerous with the ball. His season's haul took him past 50 wickets and 1500 runs for Moonee Valley, and next season should also see Dean become one of only 33 players to have reached 100 games with our club. A stalwart around the club with his handyman skills, Dean is a fitting member of Moonee Valley's Five Wisden Cricketers of the Year.

Nick Kritharidis

In his first full season in senior cricket, Nick underlined his developing talent with bat and ball as a key member of the Under 18 squad in our Fifth Eleven. A game in the Thirds showed he was not out of his depth in the higher grades. Turning 17 just before Christmas, Nick has a bright future ahead of him as he further develops his craft, which netted him 248 runs with the bat and 15 wickets @ 21 with the ball. Our Under 18s are still learning the skill of batting for long periods and Nick looks to be mastering this, with his 58 in the final round being the only half-century in the Fifts for the season. Nick is one of only six Moonee Valley players to hit a century in junior cricket, bringing up the three figures in 2005/06.

Ben Thomas

After finding his feet in the two seasons after joining Moonee Valley in 2003, Ben Thomas burst on the scene with his batting in 2005/06. He signalled his intentions with his first half-century (80) in Round 2 in the Thirds, then had the honor of playing in the first-ever game for our Seventh Eleven when its season commenced the next week, due to non-availability for a two-day game. With another one-day game in Round 9, Ben really announced his arrival, opening and batting throughout the innings for a superb 110 not out, including 18 fours and three sixes. Ben then backed up with his second century, back in the Thirds in Round 11. He finished the season with a stellar 422 runs @ 46.9, with two centuries and two half-centuries. A natural opener, Ben was one of the first selected in our Thirds finals campaign.
